

CONNECTICUT ORTHOPAEDIC SOCIETY INDUCTS ATTORNEY RICHARD O'CONNOR AS AN HONORARY MEMBER

The Connecticut Orthopaedic Society inducted as Honorary Member, Attorney Richard O'Connor during the Society's Board Annual Meeting on May 12, 2023, at the Aqua Turf Club in Plantsville, CT.

The COS Honorary Member is conferred by the Board of Directors to an individual who serves or contributes to the advancement and enhancement of orthopaedic practice in Connecticut. Richard O'Connor, JD, was nominated by COS Board Member and AAOS Councilor, F. Scott Gray, MD, for his commitment and dedication to defending physicians in medical malpractice cases for decades.

In nominating Attorney O'Connor for this award, Dr. Gray noted his dedication to defending physicians. Attorney O'Connor is a partner with Stockman, O'Connor and Connors in Newton, CT, dedicating his professional career to the representation of physicians in medical malpractice litigation. With more than 35 years of experience, he has tried numerous cases in both the State and Federal Courts. Attorney O'Connor received his J.D. from Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.
